“ Dearest Brittney,
I am sickened by what has happened. This should not have happened this way, n I am so conflicted. We got along well, I just wish everytime we came together it wasn't over a fight between you 2.. when you told me you were pregnant I was happy, concerned, worried. I told you to keep me updated on yr pregnancy n i would do anything that I can for you. You told me you were not close to yr family n I wanted to make sure my grandbb n you had what he/ she needed.. I'm so sorry for everything that has happened. But you truly were a light in this life n I know my granddaughter would have had a great mommy. You n Alya rest quietly, she had a whole other family that would have loved her dearly n you knew that cause you saw how much we love our other grand bbs. i had so wished you'd had a girl. N it was..n she was truly beautiful..you will be missed deeply n I'm sorry I wasn't there more, but I'm glad we had our long talks from time to time, n I know you 2 loved each other, you told me so many times how much you loved him, n this is what makes me hurt for you so much. i wish both of you had listened to my advice, but I do love you n will always have good memories..... kisses to you n bb girl, Momma Kim (nana).

“ Brittney you were truly the only friend I had, and you always told me I was the only one you had up until your passing, which I hope you knew meant a lot to me. This was so unexpected and heartbreaking Britt. I'll cherish every memory made with you a little harder. I'll miss the late night hangouts, long walks, lunch dates, and every bit of happiness you brought to my life. I'm praying hard for your family and children! My condolences!!
