“Maureen and I (Jerry's aunt and uncle) were sad to hear about Jerry's death and want his family to know we hold him and all of you in our hearts. We will be at the "celebration of his life" in spirit. My(Jim's) earliest memory of Jerry was as a pre-schooler. Maureen and I were visiting Grandpa and Grandma Mabrey in Rockford in the early 70's. Tom and Josephine stopped by with their kids. Their youngest, Jerry and Tom, were so active, I offered to get them out of the house and take them for a walk. The walk was actually a run - not of my choosing, but chasing the boys as they set the pace. Josephine warned me that I might regret my offer. I didn't, but after an hour of attempting to keep up with Jerry and Tom, I cried "uncle." Back at the house, they wondered how much rest I needed before I wanted to go for a walk again?

May Jerry rest in peace.

“ *Jennie, Martha, David and dad... my deepest sympathy. Your children and siblings have left you much to soon. You all probably know I worked with your mom, and Angie (my daughter) still lives in your old house, in Strawn. Mom talked about you all so much. I'm sure you all miss her too. Such a sad time in life to give up loved ones. May you feel Gods comfort. Lean on each other, and love on each other... there is no better time. So very sad. I'm so sorry. Peggy DeFries ...
