

Linda M. Tate

January 14, 1950 - November 6, 2023

Linda M. Tate, a loving wife, mother, step-mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, has passed away. She was born on January 14, 1950, in Chicago.

Linda leaves behind her husband, Keith Hebert Sr.; three children, Keith Hebert, Michell Farris, and Chelly Stafford; nine grandchildren, Heather-Renee Farris, Terra Anderson, Jacob Farris, Kalob Farris, Corey Hebert, James Hebert, Carlos Hebert, Timmy Stafford, and Gunner Stafford; and six great-grandchildren, Dayton and Arizona Stewart, Liam and Hunter Anderson, and Jaxton and Nova Farris. She is also survived by thirty step-children, whom she helped raise; and a nephew, Gary Rexroad.

Linda was met at the heavenly gates by her mother, Joann Slade; her father, Orvil Bryant; four children who left this world too soon, Scott, Telchell Tate, Telwanda Tate, and Le'Chell Tate; her sisters, Sharon Smith and Bobby; and her former husband, Trent Tate, whom she loved so deeply.

Linda was a cab driver for much of her life, and loved meeting new people. She was known by many, feared by some, and loved by all.

A private graveside service will be held at Maplewood Cemetery in Rantoul. Memorials may be made to the family.
