“ I remember when I first (or what I believe was the first) time I met Uncle Paul. It was at my grandparents house for some holiday. I knew then at such a young age that he was such a fun and caring person. He let me use him as a jungle gym, and my parents would tell me to leave him alone, and he would just smile. Gone way to quickly, He will truly be missed. ☐

“ When uncle Paul and aunt Theresa first got together, Paul would always come play basketball with us at the park by my grandparents house. In more recent years he has made a big impact with my kids. Him and aunt Theresa always had goodies for them, and they enjoyed playing with him! On the 4th this year, he opted out of an intense game of musical chairs, which cracked raelynn up! He will really be missed!! ❤️
