“ I'll always remember his laugh! He always had a kind word or a joke, when we were kids he would dare us to steal his wallet and say if we out run him we could keep it. Of course that never happened, he always caught us. R.I.P. Uncle Dick you're missed already

“ I enjoyed Dick's jokes and serving on the County Board with him. He was sharp with numbers. He could figure interest and payments in seconds without a calculator. I also enjoyed shopping at his coin store. I was thinking about him this past summer and was told that he was being cared for by family in Texas. He was a good friend. My sympathy to the family.
